

L A K E R M U S I C

Just the Same

Saw you outside
In the parking lot
In a pool of light
Like a solo spot
Dancing to a record
On the radio
My head said, "Stop"
My heart said, "Go"

I didn't know your face
I didn't know your name
I'd like to kiss you
Just the same

Saw you downtown
Waiting for a ride
Underneath the bridge
By the riverside
Eyes as black
As the water below
Red said, "Stop"
But green said, "Go"

I didn't know your face
I didn't know your name
I'd like to kiss you
Just the same

Will you, won't you
Be my girl?
Will you, won't you
Be my world?

Saw you in the tunnel
Coming out of the rain
Must have been the rumble
Of the subway train

Felt the earth shiver
Like a whisper of love
Up through my feet
To the street up above

I didn't know your face
I didn't know your name
I'd like to kiss you
Just the same

Words and music: David Francey
Ayer's Cliff, Quebec, 1993