Long Brown Hair

I can picture her standing there
With her long brown hair
With her long brown hair
Hard to imagine turning your back
On a woman like that
On a woman like that

She got grief in the morning
Grief at night
With a baby in her arms
She's feeling alright
Only love she sees around this place
Comes beaming back at her
From her baby's face

Well, she knows what she wants
I can tell you Jack
She'll never look back
She'll never look back

Listen to the fool whine
Every day
About how things never
Seem to be going his way
Try to shut her up
Every time she'd say
That she was gonna love him
Anyway

Well, she knows what she wants
I can tell you Jack
She'll never look back
She'll never look back

Promises made were
Words in the wind
And she knew she'd never make it
With the likes of him
Grabbed what she could
Put the kids in the van
Put her foot to the floor
When she took her stand

Well, she knows what she wants
I can tell you Jack
She'll never come back
She'll never come back

I can picture her standing there
With her long brown hair
With her long brown hair
