

L A K E R M U S I C

A Star Above

If you were a star above You'd shine more brightly than the rest
And if you were a song of love You'd be the tune I loved the best
A melody to break the heart
Words that ring forever true
Speak of love and all its joys
And that's the song I'd sing for you

If you were a garden flower
You'd be the rose, the only one
And even in my darkest hour You'd be the welcome morning sun
If I could only pick that flower
And hold its beauty close to me
If only for one fleeting hour
I'd dream of what can never be

If you were the silver sea
I'd sail into your very heart
And I would slip beneath the waves
Knowing we would never part
And I would drown inside of you
And gladly draw my final breath
I'd wait for all eternity
And count myself among the blessed

Words and music: David Francey
July 2008. St. John's, Newfoundland